MULES PULL TRUCK TO FIRE

THE FOUNTAIN AT THE PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION THAT SYMBOLIZES THE BUILDING OF THE PANAMA CANAL

The labor that went into the building of the Panama canal is symbolized in the Fountain of Energy by A. Stirling Calder. This heroic sculpture stands in the center lagoon of the three lagoons of the Mouth Gardens and faces the main entrance gates. The waters were first released on opening day February 20, coincidentally with the lighting of the portals of the exhibit palace and by the same means, the electric spark transmitted across the continent when President Woodrow Wilson opened the great exposition at San Francisco by wireless.

AMERICANS IN BATTLE WITH MEXICAN PATROL

San Diego, Cal., May 19. The American fishing launch, "Navy," arrived here today with bullet holes in her hull, reports of her captain, Joseph Eschmayer, declared in an attack by the Mexican patrol near the border.

Captain Eschmayer said he was attacked yesterday night miles off shore and held way between the sea and land by eight Mexican soldiers. They fired at him and he returned fire. He was flying the American flag. His crew of three men crouched behind fish nets and he shot at them. The Mexican patrol shot at the captain.

Eschmayer said that one of the Mexican soldiers was shot five times by the American fishermen and died shortly after the arrival of the patrol boat. The Mexican patrol boat was shot five times by the American fishermen and died shortly after the arrival of the patrol boat.

PLANT PEAS AND CORN AFTER OATS

As a result of a demonstration of the pea and corn crops in the county, the people of Alabama are advised to diversify their crops and not rely on the one crop system.

The oat crop has been ruined by the late spring rains and the people are advised to plant peas and corn after the oats.

Let us all hold the price of cotton up by producing a small crop and make our position independent by fortifying ourselves with a living product at home. Be sure to plan your oat land in corn, peas, soy beans and other food producing crops.

THREE FROM BRUNSWICK

With the good pitching of Hodge, backed up by excellent support, and this coupled with the hitting of the local team, the Dothan team was an easy winner over Brunswick yesterday, 6 to 3. The home team obtained a good lead in the first inning, which the visitors could never overcome.

Chester R. Vickery, of the editorial staff of The Eagle, was elected manager of the Printers' team, with Fred H. Martin, manager of the Alabama Printing Company, as secretary and treasurer.

There are a number of fellows who have signified their intentions of trying out with the Printers. There are not enough printers in Dothan who play ball to form a complete line-up, and consequently several outsiders will be allowed on the team. The placing of the different players will be decided after sufficient practice work as this will enable the manager to decide

The games to have been played at Americus, Ga., with Dothan as the opposing team, have been transferred to Dothan, and this city will have games the balance of this week and next week.

The Americus Orphans will be seen here Thursday, Friday and Saturday, this week. John Waggon has a good team, and the local team will have to go some to keep up the stride they have been maintaining for the past five days.

COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Housework.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst. I had dreadful nervous headaches and depression, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my housework. I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, shaking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, and I was all."

I was constantly in a dreadful state of mind when I finally decided to try Cardui. I took one bottle, and I finally believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."

Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.

Write to: Chas. H. Merck & Co., Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chicago, Tenn., for Special Instructions on your case, and 50-cent bottle, "How to Take Cardui." Send no money. Just send your name, and I'll send you the bottle.

where the applicants are best fitted to play.

Hodge had it all yesterday, and received excellent support. The former Newton boy also held his position like an old-timer. He was pitted against Prof. Stewart, also at one time a citizen of Newton, but now one of the leading Brunswick twirlers.

The Dothan team is going at a merry clip, and while we cannot expect to win all of them, and it would not be interesting if we did, here's hoping we continue to stay safely ahead in the win column.

Fillingim is decidedly the pitching sensation of the Sally league this year and his performance to date is somewhat of a sensation to other leagues than the Sally. Thus far the ex-Cordale hurler

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT OF FOY-WILLIAMS UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF MISS AMEIL LIEPER

The head of this department is a born style genius. She was born and raised amid the artistic atmosphere of middle Tennessee, and is from a blue-blooded French stock of Southern lineage with a mixture of Vermont Yankee blood. For a number of years Miss Lieper has charge of the children's hat department of the retail store of Max Katz on Whitehall street, in Atlanta, about ten years ago she turned her talents to the gowning up as well as the little folks. She has now had charge of this store for five seasons.

The customers of this store say that she takes as much pains in working over an old hat, as she does when selling a new one. Frequent trips to market and the services of their New York office keep this millinery department supplied with New York styles simultaneously as they appear in the retail stores of New York.

For instance the style in the great center at this writing is the straw hats with the plumed crown, and they can also be seen in this up-to-date millinery store. Miss Lieper is assisted in the workrooms by Miss Ben Hadley, Miss Leo Camp and Miss Alma Holmes.

The same policy of cleaning out all stock each season holds good in this department, each season is begun with an entire new stock. This store holds its overhead expense down to a minimum, it is satisfied with modest profits which means that the same things can always be bought in this department at a less price than that asked by the metropolitan stores. This store invites your patronage on these grounds.

BRITISH STEAMER SUNK BY GERMAN SUBMARINE BOAT

Cardiff, Wales, May 19. The British steamer Drumcree, which left Barry yesterday, has been torpedoed in the English channel. All members of the crew have been saved. The Drumcree, built in 1905, was of 2,557 tons net register and 374 feet long.

It was only on account of the bravery shown by the crew of a Norwegian steamer that the passengers and crew of the Drumcree were rescued. The Drumcree first was torpedoed when off the Cornish coast yesterday, but the projectile failed to sink her. She was taken in tow by the Norwegian steamer, but the submarine started in pursuit and the Norwegian cast her off.

A second torpedo struck the Drumcree. She was sinking rapidly when the Norwegian vessel, perceiving her peril, took off the passengers and crew.

Some Marvelous Exhibits at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition

Exhibits in Agricultural Palace at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco. Favor Over Lug-wheeler Tractors in Farm Machinery.

An observer in the Agricultural Palace at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition at San Francisco cannot help noticing, in the display of agricultural power machinery, the almost complete superabundance of the new design of power tractor, known as the caterpillar, over the cumbersome, unstable, high-wheeled engine of a few years ago. There are few of the old models on exhibition, while the caterpillar principle has been applied to almost every type of engine for agricultural purposes.

The caterpillar proper is a heavy sheet metal chain, varying in width from ten inches to two feet according to the weight of the engine, which passes around two heavy sprocket wheels like a belt. These wheels revolving, pass the chain about them, the lower part moving backward, with the weight of the engine resting on the broad surface of the chain between the two sprockets.

An engine of this type can be operated on ground soft enough to mire an ordinary farm wagon.

Duplicate of the Roosevelt African Shotgun.

A duplicate of the shotgun which Col. Theodore Roosevelt took with him on his African trip, a gun constructed expressly for him by an American armorer, is on display at the manufacturer's exhibit in the Manufacturers' Palace at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco. The gun cost its illustrious owner $360, and its beautiful design, graceful lines and wonderful lay work would justify the expenditure to any lover of fine pieces. The stock is elaborately hand carved, the barrels and lock are hand engraved, and the lock is inlaid with a hunting scene in gold. The barrels are of the finest Krupp steel. Before starting on the trip the ex-president wrote to the makers: "I really think it is the most beautiful gun I have ever seen. I am almost ashamed to take it to Africa and subject it to the rough treatment it will receive."

The left barrel is choked and the right open. It is cored to shoot either buckshot or a single ball. In a group in this Palace are displays by four of the world's greatest manufacturers of sporting arms, which form an exhibit which attracts hundreds of sportsmen. Each display is in charge of a firearms expert.

Pearl Culture a New Industry.

Among the interesting exhibits of the Japanese in the Manufacturers' Palace at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition is a demonstration of the methods and results of pearl cultivation in the far East. The displays of this cultivated product, showing hundreds of pearls which until recently were placed on a commercial basis a few years ago would have been the possession of royalty, will delight any lover of beautiful gems, and the methods of production will prove interesting to any observer. Though pearl culture has become a thriving industry in Japan, attempts to reproduce it in other parts of the world have yielded but meager results.

The successful method of propagation was evolved by the Japanese scientist Kokichi Mikimoto, who discovered a species of oyster which produced the pearl on the surface of the shell. Though the finding of the oysters and inserting the nuclei, then waiting for the pearl to grow to a commercial size may seem a simple process, the fact that it has not reduced the price of the gems, even to that of the most expensive imitations, shows that it is beset with many difficulties.

Daniel Webster's Plow at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

One of the most valuable exhibits commercially, in the Agricultural Palace at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco, is an ancient plow displayed in the Massachusetts exhibit, and forming a striking contrast to the highly complex modern machinery displayed on the acreage of floor about it.

The plow owes its distinction to the circumstance that a hundred years ago Daniel Webster's youthful hands guided it along the furrows of his father's farm near Marshfield, Mass. It was drawn by a yoke of oxen and if the future peer of American orators and statesmen could turn an acre of sod a day he had to work from daylight to dark.

It is now on display at the Agricultural Palace at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, San Francisco.

Yes, they are delightfully delicious,—the Stone's cakes at Greene's 10c Store.

Eating.

By George Fitch.

Eating is the world's greatest indoor sport.

It varies from a duty to a passion and an uncontrollable habit.

Some people eat merely in order to live, while others postpone their deaths in order that they may struggle up to the table for one more square meal with trimmings.

Eating is a necessity. No matter how proud or haughty a person may be he cannot rise above it. In some nations almost half of the ruler's spare time is spent in eating rare and complicated meals. However, in these nations the peasant is usually less extravagant. He gets along with a few bites a day. One of the reasons why the Russian soldier is hurling himself with such reckless courage against the enemy is doubtless the knowledge that if he survives the war he will have to go back home and live on black bread with cheese for dessert on holidays.

Some people make eating an art and exist dimly on aesthetically-looking dishes which a farmer could not eat fast enough to keep himself from dying of starvation. Others make eating a dissipation. The Romans were a mighty people, but in time they got to lying around the dinner table for eleven hours at a time and slightly after this the empire perished of indigestion.

A man can exist on $15 worth of food a year. However, there is no competition for this sort of thing.

The 1c sale at Greene's 10c Store is going to be a hummer,—don't forget that.

A job. The average American eats up $200 worth of staple and fancy groceries, meats, etc., each year with ease. There are other Americans who step into a city restaurant in the evening and pay enough for a dinner to keep a Belgian family alive for a month; and there are still other Americans who manage to consume $10,000 worth of food a year.

It is staggering to the mind to conceive of a man who can load away this amount of provisions. Still, many ordinary size men do it. When we think of the large number of soup kitchens which had to close down this winter before the line was fed and then ponder upon these voracious eaters and drinkers of the world's choicest foods we wonder if Providence in its inscrutable ways will not get tired of them some day and invest them with a thick coat of bristles in order that they may herd with their kind.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take Salts to Plush Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating Acids.

Kidneys and bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent, lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.
